

ASSOCIATION LOGO

The Association logo (above) is reserved strictly for uses determined by the Association committee. This includes newsletters, websites, correspondence, signage and display purposes. External use is only permitted by written consent of the Association.

COLORS - It may only be used in the above colors – being blue and black, or mono.

USE OF “MEMBER ONLY” LOGO

Member Of LOGO

Use of the Funeral Celebrants Association Australia “Member of” logo (above) is restricted to the following:

- Members may use the “Member of” logo while they retain financial membership of the association and the member meets the association’s propose and objectives, constitution and professional development program
- “Member of” logo may be used on your website, business card, email signature & with compliments slips.
- Members cannot use the logo on letters that purport to represent the association in any official way.
- Members cannot use the logo without the words “member of” – the Association logo
- If a member resigns or is terminated by the association, any use of the logo must immediately cease.
- COLORS - It may only be used in the above colors – being blue and black, or mono.